

World Family Month

City Centre Beirut, member of Majid al-Futaim, and one of the leading fashion, social, leisure destination in the city, hosted a lunch gathering organized by Bassma a non-profit organization for social development that strives to empower deprived families to reach self-sufficiency, in "Ahwak" restaurant at the terrace to raise donations on the "World Family day." This ceremony brought together public figures, VIPs as well as the major supporters of Bassma's charitable mission.