

N° 66 August 2009

Chillout By DECLIC magazine

Universally. Universities

Press Release

Bassma Organization for social development Sky Bar Event

BASSMA, organization for social development hosted the biggest fundraiser of the summer "Sparkling Summer night" at Sky Bar on July 6th 2009.

Excitement was in the air as over 400 guests arrived and found Sky Bar transformed into a glittering place full of like-minded people celebrating for a cause! The magical night, largely sponsored by GS, included delicious hors d'oeuvres and many prizes, including a five star cruise in the Baltic Sea offered by Nakhla Travel Agency.

The evening was animated by Stetty Fayçal and Blue Diamonds by Sévina performed live to the delight of everyone. Among many notable songs, Sévina surprised the audience with a rendition of the BASSMA "Hymne du Sourire" specially arranged for the event.

All of the profits of the evening benefitted BASSMA's specialized rehabilitation program. Through its tailored programs, BASSMA supports families by providing them with basic needs such as food, medication, clothes and social assistance, thereby creating a real in many lives. The programs focus on education and employment, aiming to help families achieve financial independence.

For more information log onto www.bassma.org

Ambiance

Active BASSMA Members

Linda Baroud, Sandra Klat,
Philippe Klat, Ziad Baroud

Photo De Groupe

Sévina

Hana Nafah, Rita Khoury Nafah

Amr Nazzari, Rami Elsak, Ghada Krayssat

Hana Khoury